Saturday October 13 5-9pm

house! Sling pumpkins with the giant slingshot! Browse the book sale, with books for every price range! We'll have plenty of used books, as well as new books on social justice themes, courtesy of Village Books. Buy some for yourself, or donate one to BUF's RE classrooms.

Then we'll have an Oktoberfest-inspired sausage cookout (vegetarian options available), pretzels, and beer for those 21+. We'll shake our booties to the upbeat rhythms of Ruvara Marimba, and learn a little contra dancing to the traditional tunes of Heliotrope. If we're lucky, we may even get in a polka or two...and do I hear someone yodeling...?

All this for the low price of $10/person...kids 10 and under free!!

And by the way, we could use your gently used books! For information on donating books, or to volunteer with the book sale, please contact Debbie Boots:
